The paper cut with Bao Zheng uses black for facial makeup. Above the white eyebrow is a tuft on the forehead, which looks like a white mountain rising on a white mountain. This represents his justice in enforcing laws and his ability of making justice. Bao Zheng wears an official cap for the Prime Minister, but the color of the cap is turned from black to blue, which is actually specially exaggerated by the paper cutting. The cap is decorated with flowers and the coronal balls, which shows that Bao Zheng was awarded.
